

- A photo of an insect display
- A photo of a bone, or bone fragment
- A photo of a travelling exhibit brochure
- A photo of yourself at the museum entrance
- A photo of your favorite diorama
- A photo with curator or staff member
- A photo of an extinct organism/fossil
- A photo of a plant
- A photo of an archeological artifact/find
- A photo of a geology display (rocks or minerals)
- A photo of a fish
- A photo of a herpetology specimen or diorama (snakes, frogs, turtles, lizards)
- A photo the foyer of the museum
- A photo showing the architecture of your Natural History Museum building
- A photo of you with an exhibit
- A photo of the smallest item in an exhibit you can find
- A photo of the largest item in an exhibit you can find

BINHMBehindTheScenes, #BINHMSearchYourMuseum